CAMDEN.

The fourth annual commencement of the Kipton high school was held in the Union church last Wednesday evening, May 24. The rostrum was decorated with palms and potted plants. The first two songs were sung by the school, the balance of the music being furnished by a quartet from the Oberlin Glee Club. The two graduates, Misses Flossie Cushman and Mable Bronson, delivered their orations in a very pleasing manner. Prof. Bryan presented the diplomas in a few well-chosen words. Prof. Teller, of Tiffin, gave an address on "Higher Education."

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Peck, of Wellington; Mr. and Mrs. Cushman, of Elyria, and Mr. Cushman, of Lorain, attended the commencement exercises.

Mrs. L. O. Diebler, of Polk, visited Mr. Henry Smith's family last week.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft-repeated experience of trustworthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people and is the best. For sale by Near & Wells.

WEST CLARKSFIELD.

DO IT YOURSELF.

It is easy to tell whether your Kidneys are diseased. Take a bottle or glass tumbler and fill it with urine. If there is a sediment—a powder-like substance—after standing a day and night, there is something wrong with the kidneys. Other sure signs of disease are a desire to urinate often, pain in the back, or if your urine stains linen. There is no question that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best and surest medicine in the world for disease of the Kidneys, Liver, Bladder and Blood, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia and Chronic Constipation. It quickly relieves and cures inability to hold urine and the necessity of getting up a number of times during the night. It puts an end to that scalding pain when passing urine and corrects the bad effects of whiskey and beer. It is sold for one dollar a bottle at all drug stores.

Send your full post office address to the DR. DAVID KENNEDY CORPORATION, Rondout, N. Y., and mention this paper. They will then mail you a trial bottle of Favorite Remedy and a valuable medical pamphlet free, giving full directions for its use. Every reader of this paper can depend upon the genuineness of this liberal offer, and all sufferers from the diseases mentioned above should take advantage of it at once.

First church Sunday morning. The church was beautifully decorated with flags and palms, and the choir and male quartette rendered some very fine selections for the occasion. At 3 p. m. the Sunday-school marched with the old soldiers to the cemetery and decorated the graves of the dead heroes.

As the season of the year when pneumonia, la grippe, sore throat, coughs, cold, catarrh, bronchitis and lung troubles are to be guarded against, nothing "is a fine substitute," "will answer the purpose," or "is just as good" as One Minute Cough Cure. That is the one infallible remedy for all lung, throat or bronchial troubles. Insist vigorously upon having it if "something else" is offered you.

DR. J. W. HOUGHTON.

If you have a cough, throat irritation, weak lungs, pain in the chest, difficult breathing, croup or hoarseness, let us suggest One Minute Cough Cure. Always safe and reliable.

DR. J. W. HOUGHTON.

A KANSAS PREACHER.

Kansas City Journal.

Speaking of Kansas preachers, the Rev. G. H. Woodward, pastor of the Methodist church in Goodland, prints the following card in the local paper: "I wish to inform the good people of this town that I will not accept complimentary to public entertainments or to socials, and when money is being raised for anything that is good for the people, do not pass me by. Let the people pay what they promised on my salary, let my salary be paid, and then if I play deadbeat, ring me off."

JUMPED OVER A TOWN.

That is What a Certain Ship Did and It Was Afterwards Carried Back.

A most extraordinary incident happened to the corvette Monongahela at Santa Cruz in 1857. While at anchor in the harbor a tremendous tidal wave lifted her upon its crest and carried her clear over the town of Fredericshadt and back again without injuring the town or the boat to any great extent. The receding wave landed her on the beach instead of in the waters of the harbor, and it cost the United States government $100,000 to float her again.

Fully as strange was the fate of the sloop-of-war Water. She was anchored in the harbor of Arica, Peru, in 1868, when a huge tidal wave swept inland and flooded the whole city. The wave carried the sloop several miles inland and finally landed her in the midst of a tropical forest. It was impossible to release her from such a peculiar position, and she was sold for a nominal sum. The purchasers turned the vessel into a hotel, and the remains of the once formidable war vessel loom up in the tropical forest to-day as a monument to the power of tidal waves.

A BOOK OF FATE.

The Keeping of One Often Helps to Make the Keeper Quite Miserable.

A young woman who revels in woe has evolved, or at least revived, an excellent way of keeping herself in a state of perpetual gloom, says a New York exchange. She has a diary with two pages for each day. On one page she writes what she expects to do, where she proposes to go and whom she hopes to see during the day. On the opposite page she writes what she has done, where she goes and whom she has seen. The pages, says the young woman, never agree and are usually full contradictions of each other. The silver lining of the cloud of pessimism which such a perverse state of affairs would otherwise engender is that she has noticed that when she predicts and expects a gloomy day, filled with disagreeable duties or monotonous dullness, the opposite page is sure to glimmer with pleasant surprises—calls from pleasant people, letters from absent friends, invitations of an especially tempting character and all sorts of unlooked-for enjoyment. The writer of the diary says she finds it an excellent antidote for undue elation of spirits and a check to despair. When she feels "down" she can turn to her blue days and see how well they turned out, and when she feels particularly exuberant a glance at the records of days joyously anticipated but miserably spent has a wonderfully sobering effect. The book keeps her in a state of tranquil neutrality very restful for the nerves. The absurd young woman has had the old diary bound in pink and purple, typifying joy and woe, and calls it her book of fate.

MALAY CHARACTER.

A Misrepresentation of Long Standing That Is Without Foundation.

In character the Malay is impassive. He exhibits a reserve, diffidence, and even bashfulness, which is in some degree attractive and leads the observer to think that the ferocious, blood-thirsty character imputed to the race must be grossly exaggerated. He is not demonstrative. He is slow and deliberate in speech. Children in the company of men are silent, and are generally quiet and obedient. When alone the Malay neither talks nor sings. He is cautious of giving offense. He does not quarrel easily about money matters. Practical joking is utterly repugnant to his nature. The Malays of the higher class are exceedingly polite. They are proud, and, if ill-treated, revengeful; but under generous treatment are gentle, kind, humane, grateful, docile and faithful. They are dutiful children and kind parents. They treat their aged kinsmen with the greatest kindness, and feel it a duty to relieve the wants of an indigent relation. Old men and women are always regarded with respect, says the Encyclopedia of India (1898).

Dr. Oxley described the character of the unsophisticated Malay as remarkable for its simplicity and honesty. They have a regard for truth, and may generally be depended upon in their statements. What has so often been written of their revengeful spirit, he says, is much exaggerated; polite in the extreme, according to their own ideas, they never indulge in abuse one toward the other.
